

Divine The Opera Trio Produces the entertainment at the Nobel Prize Banquet 2013!

Divine, the three opera singers Caroline Gentele, Gabriella Lambert-Olsson and Jacqueline Miura, have sung numerous times in Blå Hallen Stockholm, also in Dalhalla, Allsång på Skansen, at the Polar Prize dinner and at Stockholm Pride Festival.

Divine have this year been given the great honour to provide the entertainment at the Party of all Parties, the Nobel Banquet!

Divine, as entrepreneurs in their own right, will for this occasion produce the three different performances during the Banquet as well as sing.

In this project they have brought together some of the fantastic, talented people they have met and worked with since they launched in 2007. Anders Neglin, who produced their first CD, is responsible for the music production. Gunilla Petterson, who designed make-up and hair for Divine's critically acclaimed Sweden tour of "A Divine Taste of Opera" will this time also design their costumes.

Tenor Göran Eliasson and Stockholm Academic Male Chorus, led by Pelle Olofson, are some of those taking part in the "Nobel-Divertissement".

Divine aims to give an evening which is both thrilling and beautiful, filled with music, old and new and humour!

To intensify the feeling of transportation in time and space they have succeeded in realising a dream!

This year the guests at the Nobel Banquet will be presented with the technique "Video Mapping"! (The type of video projections which were used at the Olympic games and the Eurovision song contest.)

The impossible has become possible, and the deep red brickwall in "Blå hallen" will come to life and change appearance thanks to Visualrelief, Panasonic and Informationsteknik.

To accompany the dessert parade, one of the highlights of the Banquet, Divine has commissioned a new piece "Anthem for all Mankind" written by composer and guitarist Henrik Janson, with text by Miura Daszak. It is a tribute to The Nobel Prize, it's founder Alfred Nobel and his will and testament.

On the 11th December, the day after the Nobel Banquet, "Anthem for all Mankind" sponsored by the Anders Wall Foundation will be released on CD and signed by Divine at NK Department store in Stockholm.

On the 22nd December Divine will be singing live in "ljusgård" at NK.
