

Divine

PRESS RELEASE

Stockholm based opera trio Divine, consists of Caroline Gentele, Gabriella Lambert-Olsson and Jacqueline Miura.

Divine's debut performance was at the Stockholm Water Prize in 2007. This acclaimed debut resulted in an invitation to perform for the Swedish King and Queen during their official visit to Vienna.

Since then Divine has sung their way into the hearts of many an audience, on the popular TV programme "Allsång på Skansen", at the Polar Prize, the Stockholm Pride Festival and at Dalhalla's Fireworks Concert amongst others.

In tours throughout Sweden they regularly perform with orchestras such as the Dala Sinfonietta, Norrköping Symphony Orchestra, Borås Symphony Orchestra, the Drottningholm Baroque Ensemble and Rebaroque.

Outside Sweden Divine has sung several times in Norway, Denmark, Estonia and most recently in New York, USA at the Childhood World Foundation Gala Dinner in Gotham Hall.

This Autumn as part of The Divine mission, "Opera for all", they will perform their new self-produced show "Divine for shore" at the exclusive brasserie Pontus by the Sea.

In December they will give a Family Christmas Concert together with Power Strings in Eric Ericsonhallen in Skeppsholmskyrkan.

During spring 2012 they toured in Sweden with their first self-produced show "A Divine taste of opera" which is a tribute to singing, motherhood and life itself!

Divine has released two Cd's on the record label Carpe Diem/Naxos: "Divine" (produced and arranged by Anders Neglin) and "A Divine Christmas" with Malmö Symphony Orchestra and conductor Bjarte Engeset..
