The Nightingales introduces three of the greatest opera stars of the 19th century: the Swedish-born sopranos Jenny Lind, Christina Nilsson and Signe Hebbe.

In this dream play, the mega-stars meet. They argue ferociously, flatter each other honestly and backstab with intent to hurt. They are bitter rivals who compete with their voices, but are united in their joy and love of music and performing.

"DIVINE" the opera trio, consisting of the three sopranos Caroline Gentele, Jacqueline Miura and Gabriella Lambert-Olsson, portray Jenny, Christina and Signe and sing their repertoire from Der Freischütz, La Traviata, Faust, La Sonnambula, Don Giovanni, Romeo et Juliette, Lucia di Lammermoor, Norma and The Magic Flute, amongst others.

The Nightingales is a show in which fantastic music and singing of the highest level, brings you sparkling coloraturas, moving folksongs and dramatic vocal expression interspersed with comedy. A dream that will both move you to tears and make you burst into laughter.
